1. Generally

1.1 Target of the contest

- The main target of the 13th Czech Junior Open National Gliding Championship 2005 is to establish the Junior Champion of the Czech Republic for the year 2005:
 - a) In Club Class (Junior Champion of the CZ)
 - b) In Kombi Class - 15m, 18m and Std. class together (Junior Champion of the CZ)
The National Champion in certain class will become competitor with the highest sum of the Daily Scores from all valid contests' days.
- The second target is to establish the winner of the Safari Cup – open class contest for the year 2005.
- Next targets are:
 - To compare performances of the best juniors from CZ and abroad
 - To assess nomination (CZ Junior National Team) for international contest
 - To assess nomination for Junior and Senior Nationals in 2006
 - To establish contacts with aeroclubes from CZ and abroad with aim of next co-operation in gliding „across the border“.
 - To support gliding in young generation pilots (that correspond to price policy of the contest)

1.2 Basic agreements

- 1.2.1 Contest will be run according to the FAI Sporting Code General Section and Section 3 – Gliding with Annexes; with respect of Sporting Codes set by Aeroclub of the Czech Republic (AeCR) and finally, local procedures are set by this Rules and Procedures. Each false step during Contest will be subject of penalty and can lead to disqualification from contest.
- 1.2.2 Validity of the contest: Minimum number for open contest in club or standard class is 10 competitors. Winner will be awarded only on condition, that during contest days at least 4 task are successfully fulfilled for each class.
- 1.2.3 Winners: Junior Champion of the Czech Republic for the year 2005 in each class will be competitor with the highest sum of points from each valid contest day.
In case of equality of total score of 2 or more competitors, the winner is the competitor with the lowest sum of placement during valid contest days.

1.3 Classes of the contest

- 1.3.1 With the respect of FAI Sporting Code Section 3 – Gliding with Annexes, the contest will be held in 2 classes – club and kombi.
- 1.3.2 Club class:: See the FAI Sporting Code Section 3 – Gliding (SC 3), paragraph 7.7.6. Water ballast is not permitted. The competitor's results will be compared using handicap factors DAeC. Daily task will be set with respect to gliders with handicap „100“ – ASW-19, LS-1f

- 1.3.3 Kombi class: For each type of glider except the club class. Water ballast which may be discharged in flight is permitted. The competitor's results will be compared using handicap factors DAeC. Daily task will be set with respect to gliders with handicap „106“ – Discus, LS-8, LAK-19.
- 1.3.4 Safari Cup: Open class, Water ballast which may be discharged in flight is permitted. The competitor's results will be compared using handicap factors DAeC. Daily task will be set with respect to gliders with handicap „106“ – Discus, LS-8, LAK-19.
- 1.3.5 Nomination of the competitors: Up to the maximum number of gliders – 50 is nomination of CZ juniors set by Glider Committee of the AeCR (see web pages http://www.aeroklub.cz/...). For competitors abroad, the nomination is free up to maximum capacity of the airfield. Crucial for guarantee entry to the contest is the day of receiving of Final Entry Form by AC Dvur Kralove n/L.
Juniors – according SC 3 paragraph 7.8.2 b)
Safari Cup - not dependent on the age of competitors

Due to maximum capacity of the airfield AC Dvur Kralove n/l (50 gliders) – and in case of saturation maximum capacity by Junior competitors Final Entries, Safari Cup singles should be postponed and merged with Safari Cup Double Seaters (30.7.-13.8.2005).
